BCM Pound Projects update

Thank you for this month's contribution towards our monthly projects. This month the project was not a charity project but one of kindness and one that will earn us rewards, as it counts as sadaqah jariyah.

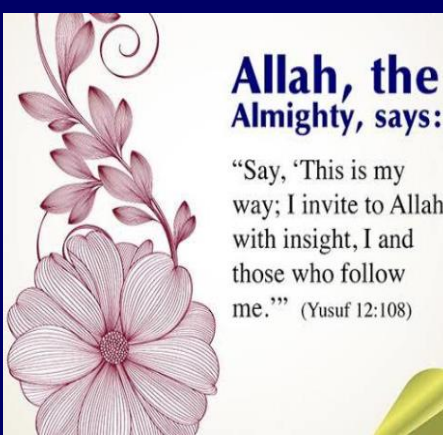

This month we created gift packs to distribute to reverts to Islam. We made six packs in total which comprised of luxury prayer mats, a tasbeeh and a book of duas and supplications with translations in English.

In Islam some of the most unsure individuals are new members of our community who have recently reverted to Islam. The process of reverting can be a very challenging experience depending on the individual's personal circumstances. Sometimes this can be due to a lack of support or understanding from non-Muslim family members or friends; other times it can be as simple as an absence of the appropriate knowledge.

Whatever the cause, it's our responsibility to welcome reverts into the Ummah and to help them during this period of transition. So, that's why we this month we wanted to do our bit and carry out an act of kindness and provide a gift to people when they may need it most. A simple act of kindness can make all the difference to a struggling revert. One gift set has already been distributed to a Spanish sister who reverted to Islam; she was absolutely delighted with the kind gesture.

"Invite to the path of your Lord with wisdom and good advice"
(An-Nahl 16:125)

Allah, the Almighty, says:

"Say, 'This is my way; I invite to Allah with insight, I and those who follow me.'" (Yusuf 12:108)

A note to say that your money is not used as zakat but as lillah. Jzk.
