HELPING THE LESS FORTUNATE THROUGH ACTS
OF KINDNESS AND CHARITY

Charity projects

BCM Pound Projects update

This month was project 43 that we have completed, now in our fifth year of helping others. This month we donated prayer mats and tasbees for a professional workplace where a prayer room was introduced for the first time! We are privileged to have the opportunity to provide the prayers mat and tasbees that will be utilized every day for salah and for the Jummah prayer in congregation.

Narrated Abu Huraira: I heard Allah's Messenger (peace be upon him) saying, "If there was a river at the door of anyone of you and he took a bath in it five times a day would you notice any dirt on him?" They said, "Not a trace of dirt would be left." The Prophet (peace be upon him) added, "That is the example of the five prayers with which Allah blots out (annuls) evil deeds." Sahih al-Bukhari, Vol. 1, Book 9, Hadith 7

When we think of barakah, we usually think of things that can increase barakah in our day, the coming week or even for the next year. We search for barakah to make our time on this earth more productive, more fruitful and to have the blessings of Allah swt with us in our day-to-day actions.

However, 'Eternal barakah' is the kind that multiplies our deeds without the restrictions levied by the concept of time. Of course our days are limited, no human being will ever be eternal and our years in this dunya are fleeting. But our hasanah is not bound by time. Without any doubt, they can increase continuously and exponentially, even after our days on this earth come to an end. The Messenger of Allah, pbuh, said "When a man dies, his deeds come to an end except for three things sadaqah jariyah (ceaseless charity); a knowledge which is beneficial, or a virtuous descendant who prays for him (for the deceased)." [Muslim]. Donating items for use in a prayer room is the ultimate barakah. A small deed that keeps multiplying our hasanah even after we have long forgotten it – what better barakah could there be? On that note we thank you again for your monthly contributions towards our monthly projects – without you they would simply not be possible.

A note to say that your money is not used as zakat but as lillah. Jzk.
