HELPING THE LESS FORTUNATE THROUGH ACTS
OF KINDNESS AND CHARITY

Charity projects

BCM Pound Projects update

Thank you for this month's contribution towards our monthly projects. Giving charity isn't just a kind gesture; it is also a highly rewarding deed in Islam. A true act of compassion, charity is regarded as Sunnah in Islam, a deed deeply loved and highly preached by Prophet Muhammad (PBUH). Charity is connected to generosity; a virtue that is central in Islam. It is considered a quality of the soul, which Allah gives to those He loves, those who are not attached to material wealth and instead use what they are given to help others. That is exactly what we did this month on our 47th project to help others. This month we provided an educational resource for the two orphaned sisters that we have been helping over the last couple of years. We had previously provided a laptop and a range of educational supplies to the girls. The older child used the laptop for her studies but now the younger also required a device to complete coursework and homework. The girls reached out and asked if we would help and so we did. We supplied a Chromebook device so that the girls would now each have their own device and could progress in their education. Not only have we helped orphans but also facilitated the progression and gain of their knowledge and achievements Insha'Allah.

The worst form of poverty is "Illiteracy".

Get/Seek knowledge from cradle to grave.

Be kind without expecting anything in return.
Do good and keep it between you and Allah.

Prophet, may Allah bless him and grant him peace, said

"I and the guardian of the orphan will be in the Paradise like that," indicating his forefinger and middle finger. (Sahih Bukhari)

"Be good to orphans and the needy.
Speak nicely to people.
And help the poor."

وَيَسْأَلُونَكَ عَنِ الْيَتَامَىٰ قُلْ إِصْلَاحٌ لَّهُمْ خَيْرٌ
وَإِنْ تَخَالَطُوهُمْ فَاخْوَانُكُمْ

They ask you (Muhammad) about orphans. Say, Promotion of their welfare is an act of great goodness. There is no harm in your living together with them, for they are your brothers.
